

Leaflet on formalities of the doctoral thesis

The doctoral procedure is regulated in the Doctoral Regulations of 2010 and is supplemented by subject-specific supplements of the Chemistry Doctoral Committee, according to which this information sheet is based.

One (1) examination copy has to be produced in the following format:

- printed on both sides // 80 g/m² paper // DIN-A4 format // permanently bound (no spiral binding)
- upload an electronic version in Docata (max. 20 MB)

Structure of the dissertation (guideline)

Title page	Name of the author, naming the faculty and the institute, (in case of interdisciplinary dissertation state all departments involved), additionally the designation as a “dissertation submitted to the University of Hamburg” and the year of submission. NO Small Capitals in the title.
Sheet 1	(Names of the reviewers, oral defense committee, date of disputation and/or (if different) date of print release) ¹
Sheet 2	Explanation of where and in which period the dissertation has been carried out
I. List of publications
II. Table of content
III. List of abbreviations
1) German Abstract	Short summary of the thesis in German (approx. 1 page).
2) English Abstract	Short summary of the thesis in English (approx. 1 page).
3) Introduction	Scientific context and current state of knowledge	} may be combined
4) Theory/ State of knowledge
5) Objectives of the thesis (based on current state of knowledge)
6) Results	}	may be combined
7) Discussion
8) Outlook (optional)
9) Experimental part (material and methods)
The order of points 3-9 may be changed.
10) Bibliography
11) Appendix:	a) List of hazardous substances according to GHS (hazard symbols H- und P) b) ...
12) Acknowledgements (optional)
13) Declaration on Oath:
„I hereby declare on oath that this doctoral dissertation is written independently and solely by my own based on the original work of my PhD and has not been used other than the acknowledged resources and aids.“
Date, Signature

Note: Adoption of contents from previously published papers:

Parts (not entire manuscripts!) from previously published own publications may be adopted (e.g. illustrations) if

- this is properly cited
- it is stated if this was done in cooperation with other persons (and with whom)
- the common theme of the dissertation is not interrupted
- in one's own interest, the legal regulations of the respective publishers are adhered to

¹ Examination copy: leave names and dates free

Deposit copies after finishing the promotional studies (disputation): please add names and dates

Date: March 2023